"Very thoughtful and pragmatic." Career Counselor

"The exercises were quite powerful. Wonderful training! Thank you!" Career Counselor

"Approach is positive and builds on …strengths." Career Counselor

"Concrete examples ...make factual information easier to apply and remember." Vocational Rehabilitation

"Excellent presentation filled with thought provoking information and practical solutions. Would travel again for one of Barbara's presentations." Non-Profit

This live, interactive seminar is designed specifically for career counselors, coaches, vocational rehabilitation and transition specialists, and other professionals who want to be better equipped to guide these students and clients. (Parents are welcome to attend.) You will learn:

- How individuals with Asperger's Syndrome think, and the impact of communication, sensory, and executive function difficulties in the workplace
- Why occupational choices should not be based on interests
- Four steps to finding the right job match
- Establishing rapport, dealing with unrealistic expectations, developing manageable job search strategies, disclosure and accommodations

Register for this live Internet seminar by Jan. 31 and save!

The content is presented using non-technical language, and illustrated with examples from the presenter's extensive experience coaching hundreds of adults with Asperger's Syndrome/autism. Content is for professionals who assist individuals seeking competitive (not sheltered or heavily supported) employment. Event will not be recorded. Visit www.forwardmotion.info to register.

Barbara Bissonnette is the Principal of Forward Motion Coaching. She specializes in career development coaching for individuals with Asperger's Syndrome.
